Corporate Governance Insight invites original research-based papers and cases for its upcoming issue to be released in June 2020, in the areas mentioned above. Contributions can be of theoretical or empirical nature. Manuscript submitted shall be original work which has not been previously published or submitted for publication elsewhere.

Author Guidelines:

The author should send the soft copy of the manuscript typed in MS Word Format at journal@grfcg.in

The manuscript should be accompanied by:

- (i) Cover page containing title of the paper, author's name, designation, official address, contact address, phone/ fax numbers and e-mail address.
- (ii) A non-mathematical abstract of about 150 words, the abstract should be self-contained and citation-free. The abstract shall be drawn such that it gives a very brief overview of Research Issue addressed, Research Findings, Academic and Practitioner or Policy Implications of your study. Four to five keywords with JEL classification below the abstract, please refer the link to check the appropriate JEL classification <https://www.aeaweb.org/econlit/jelCodes.php>
- (iii) A declaration by the authors (provided below) shall be signed by all the authors and must accompany the manuscript as a separate file.

The recommended length of the article is 3500 to 7500 words including figures and tables typed with 12-point font in Times New Roman on "8.5 x 11" (A-4) size papers with 1.5 inch margin on all four sides and spacing between lines being 1.5 line. Main Headings -12point font size in Capitalization, Sub-Headings - 12 point font size, Headings to be set in 'bold' letters and shall not be lettered or numbered. The same pattern should be followed in the entire paper.

Quotations: of four lines or more should be indented and types in single space. Shorter quotations should be included in the body of the text.

Mathematical notations: should be clearly typed. Check the layout of mathematical expressions especially alignment, centering, length of fraction lines and type, position and closure of brackets.

Capitalisation should be kept to minimum and should be consistent.

All figures, images, tables, etc., should be embedded into the original file, numbered and captioned properly. They shall be self-contained and complement, not duplicate, information contained in the text. Tables should be supplied as editable files, not pasted as images. Legends should be concise but comprehensive – the table, legend, and footnotes must be understandable without reference to the text. Source must be mentioned.

Authors using questionnaires should include a copy of the questionnaire along with the manuscript.

References

References shall not be numbered or bulleted and shall be in the same format as the article, not an embedded file of some other format like MS EXEL.

Authors are responsible for ensuring that the information in each reference is complete and accurate. All references should follow APA format. References should be placed at the end of the manuscript. The list should mention only those sources cited in the text of the manuscript, citations in text references should include the author's name, and year of publication and should be identified using numbers in square brackets (e.g., "as discussed by Smith(2005) [9]"; "as discussed elsewhere[9, 10]").

Please ensure that Manuscript has been 'spell checked' and 'grammar checked'

Authors are responsible for making sure that they have not duplicated an article already published or accepted.

Nowhere in the body of the paper, the name or affiliation of author(s) be written in explicit or implicit form.

The Manuscripts not confirming to the guidelines will not be considered for publication. Authors may also be requested to modify and otherwise improve the manuscript to meet the standards of contents, presentation, and style of the Journal if necessary before the publication of the Journal.

Author Declaration-cum-undertaking (format given below) shall be provided by author/s if the paper is accepted for publication.
